appreciation for President Musharraf's support to the U.S. led war against terrorism.

(b) It is not for Government to comment on U.S. assessment of President Musharraf's cooperation with the U.S. efforts in combating terrorism. He has displayed no such commitment on bringing an end to cross border terrorism against India. President Bush stated after his meeting with President Musharraf on 24 June 2003 that they discussed the need to address extremism and cross border infiltration.
